

Nau mai! Welcome to the WESCT October 2022 newsletter. The WESCT Trustees are proud to own The Lines Company (TLC) on behalf of you, the customers, ensuring benefits such as bill savings and jobs for our local community.

News

October 2022

WESCT Annual Meeting Thursday 20 October

6pm St Luke's Anglican Church, Te Kūiti

Mike Fox appointed TLC Chief Executive

WESCT congratulates Mike on his appointment as TLC Chief Executive.

Mike has been with TLC for five years, holding the role of General Manager, Network.

He has worked in the electricity industry for 18 years, bringing an extensive background in asset management, planning, engineering and strategic direction to the role of leading TLC.

Mike is also a trustee of the Maru Energy Trust.

Meet your Trustees at the Annual Meeting L-R: Erin Gray, Janette Osborne, Cathy Prendergast, Guy Whitaker, William Oliver (Chair) and Carol Christian

With 'A Trustee' elections next year, the annual meeting is an excellent opportunity to learn about our role if you are interested in becoming a trustee in future.

Meet your WESCT trustees over light refreshments.

Hear from Chief Executive Mike Fox on TLC's progress last year and plans for the year ahead.

Contact Celina Yapp at WESCT (info@wesct.org.nz or 0277493728) for any meeting enquiries.

TLC Inspiring Local Minds Scholarships

Three school leavers were recently awarded TLC Inspiring Local Minds Scholarships. Una Drayton, Thomas Verry, and Christopher Bailey will receive $2000 for each year of study to help their education journey.

Line competition success for TLC

TLC's team of Dion Adams, Matthew Tamaira, Brayden Crown and Wiremu Te Tawhero took part in the Connexis annual line competition. They won the Line Mechanic Build and Line Mechanic Dismantle Champion categories; and Wiremu won the Ross Archer Memorial Line Mechanic Safety Award.